

'What's that?', and the customer stops. A moment of interest. This moment can mean the difference between a direct sale, or somebody walking past without ever having seen your product.

This is THE opportunity to stand out in a saturated market; From a 60cm large plant tag, moving images are played as an animation.

Impact in your own style, with dynamic images, your text and even space for third party advertising.

The bright screen is designed to attract passers-by optimally at a distance of 2 meters, and hold the attention.

Planned a new campaign? Over 200.000 great images related to the Industry are ready for use.

Via your own account at VisionsPictures.com, you have access to almost every variety on the market, ready to use at a moments notice.

Put them on a USB stick, put it in the frame. Just plug and play.
